

Nebraska EPSCoR NSF RII Track 1 Grant
External Review Panel Visit
Cornhusker Marriott Hotel, Lincoln, NE
Itinerary

Thursday, August 23, 2018, Grand Ballroom DEF

- |          |                                                                                                                                   |
|----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 am  | Welcome and overview, Fred Choobineh                                                                                              |
| 8:45 am  | External Evaluation team presentation, Cindi Dunn, Kimberly Nicholson (OEIE, KSU)                                                 |
| 9:10 am  | Overview of science, Ed Cahoon                                                                                                    |
| 9:40 am  | AIM 1 presentation, J. Schnable and E. Moriyama                                                                                   |
| 10:25 am | Break                                                                                                                             |
| 10:45 am | AIM 2 presentation, T. Durham Brooks and D. Schachtman                                                                            |
| 11:30 am | AIM 3 presentation, E. Cahoon and T. Clemente                                                                                     |
| 12:15 pm | Lunch with all RII investigators, post docs and graduate students                                                                 |
| 1:00 pm  | AIM 4 presentation, J. Alfano and Y. Ge                                                                                           |
| 1:45 pm  | Workforce development/outreach presentation, F. Choobineh, T. Durham Brooks, E. Moriyama                                          |
| 2:30 pm  | Panel meets with Postdocs and graduate students only                                                                              |
| 3:15 pm  | Poster session with faculty, post docs, and graduate students available with posters for questions and answers from panel members |
| 4:45 pm  | Meeting concludes                                                                                                                 |